

This is a detailed land use map of the City of Cambridge, Massachusetts. The map displays various colored zones representing different land uses, such as residential, commercial, industrial, and open space. A prominent green line outlines a specific boundary, possibly a city or district limit. The map includes a legend on the right side with numerous categories and a scale bar at the bottom left.